RFK, Others Eliminated by Johnson

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's sweeping knockout of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and five others as vice presidential possibilities focuses speculation on Minnesota's Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey and Eugene J. McCarthy as his probable choice for a running mate.

In an unprecedented action Thursday the President eliminated nearly all the major possibilities for the No. 2 spot — including Kennedy, Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

The consensus among many knowledgeable Democrats was that Johnson, calculating that he has established his own political image strongly, wants to win elective office without leaning on any Kennedy.

The feeling was that to eliminate any emotional surge for the attorney general, the President was willing to eliminate a whole lineup of possible candidates he never really had considered.

Among those who hit the dust, only Shriver, a Roman Catholic and a brother-in-law of the late President Kennedy, and McNamara had received the sort of presidential praise that pointed toward them as potential candidates.

U.N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, a two-time loser as Democratic standard bearer, was among those knocked out of consideration for second spot on the ticket to be chosen at the Democratic national convention which opens Aug. 24 in Atlantic City, N.J.

In his spray-gun action Thursday only six hours after telling a quickie news conference he had not decided on a running mate, Johnson included on his non-candidate list all cabinet members and those in government who have access to the White House for such gatherings.

One of those personally notified, who wasn't given a chance

Girl Culled in Contest Is Hysterical

By REID MILLER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Beauty queens from 15 nations—semifinalists in the Miss Universe pageant—rehearsed and gathered their hopes today for Saturday night's finals, when one will be named the most beautiful girl in the world.

The semifinalists were chosen Thursday night in a ceremony marred by the hysterical collapse backstage of Edna Park, Miss Nigeria, who cried uncontrollably for nearly 30 minutes after failing to make the cut.

Miss Park, 20, with flashing black eyes, walked from the stage seconds after the semifinalists were announced and collapsed in tears behind the curtains, unseen by a convention hall audience of thousands.

"No, no," she sobbed, pounding her fists on the rough wood floor.

Heartbroken, she resisted efforts of a newsmen and pageant position. And after several agonizing minutes, was carried kicking and screaming to a dressing room by a policeman and contest official.

The semifinalists were: Miss Argentina, Maria Amelia Ramirez; Miss Bolivia, Olga del Carpio Oropeza; Miss Brazil, Angela Vasconcellos; Miss England, Brenda Blackler; Miss Finland, Sirpa Wallenius.

Miss France, Edith Noel; Miss Greece, Kiriaki Tsopeli; Miss Israel, Ronit Rinat; Miss Italy, Emanuela Stramano.

Miss Norway, Jorunn Nyseth; Miss Paraguay, Miriam R. Brugada; Miss Republic of China, Lana Yi Yu; Miss Sweden, Ziv Marta Aberg; Miss USA, Bobbi Johnson; and Miss Venezuela, Mercedes Revenga.

"I felt a crack in my heart," exclaimed Miss Greece, expressing her joy.

Miss Brazil, a hazel eyed brunette who packs 132 pounds into a frame that measures 35½-25½-35½, was "very, very happy" but not a bit nervous.

Miss Holland, blue eyed Heny Deul, won the trophy for best native costume. Her outfit included wooden shoes, which she wore here for the first time in her 18 years. She said she doesn't wear them at home "because they hurt my feet."

No Indication of Agreement in Race Riots

By RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP) — After talks with Mayor Robert F. Wagner over a four-day period, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., has given no indication of any agreement on major demands by New York City's Negroes.

At a news conference Thursday he urged round-the-clock negotiations on a Harlem unity committee's nine-point program.

He also called Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy "utterly unresponsive" to Negroes' demands.

Wagner, who has twice scheduled and then canceled news conferences after meetings with King, would have a three meetings of about four hours each.

After last week's racial rioting and looting in Harlem and in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, Harlem leaders made two principal demands:

1. Suspension of white police Lt. Thomas R. Gilligan, who shot and killed a Negro boy. Police say it was done in self-defense. The shooting touched off the bloody rioting.

2. Formation of a civilian board to review cases of alleged police brutality.

Murphy has opposed both demands. Wagner has expressed his "complete faith" in Murphy.

Asked about Wagner's reaction to the two demands, King said Wagner would have to answer that.

He said "explosive possibilities" are still in Harlem "and they will subside to the degree that the administration seeks to remove the conditions that brought them on at first."

Again Turned Down in Bid as Candidate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Kenneth Coffelt of Little Rock was turned down Thursday by Secretary of State Kelly Bryant in a bid to be an independent candidate for attorney general.

Bryant said Coffelt's petitions, which carried only 75 signatures, lacked a sufficient number of names.

Bryant acted on the basis of a ruling by Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, who said an independent candidate needs 46,214 signatures to qualify for the Arkansas ballot.

Bennett made the ruling when there was speculation that Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace might bring his campaign for unpledged electors to Arkansas.

Coffelt contested Bennett's ruling then he said Thursday that he would file suit in Pulaski Chancery Court next Monday in an effort to force Bryant and the state Election Board to put his name on the ballot for the general election.

Coffelt had no criticism of Bryant.

"I think he has a wrong interpretation of the law handed to him by the attorney general, but that is the attorney general's fault and not the fault of Mr. Bryant," Coffelt said.

Coffelt, who ran for governor on the Democratic ticket in 1962, said Atty. Gen. 1967 plainly says an independent candidate can qualify with petitions bearing between 50 and 1,000 signatures.

The 1957 law superceded a 1955 act which required petitions with 15 per cent of the total vote for governor in the previous general election, he said.

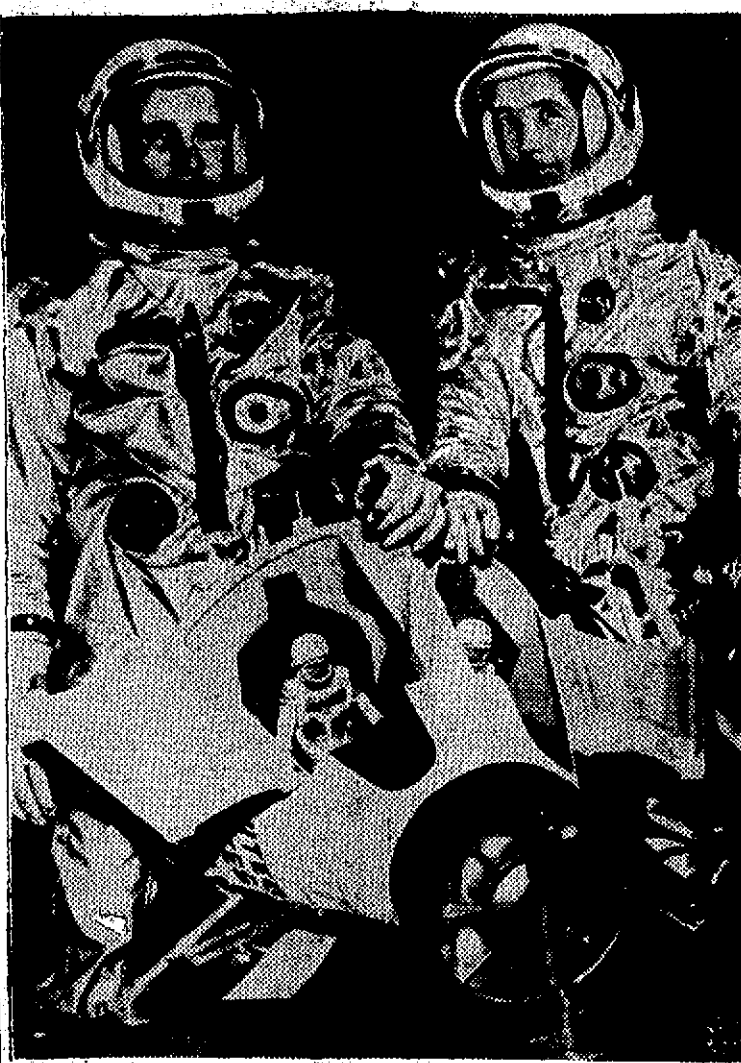

Coffelt said he would appeal immediately to the Arkansas Supreme Court if the chancery court rules against him.

If he gets on the ballot, he would have one full month to campaign.

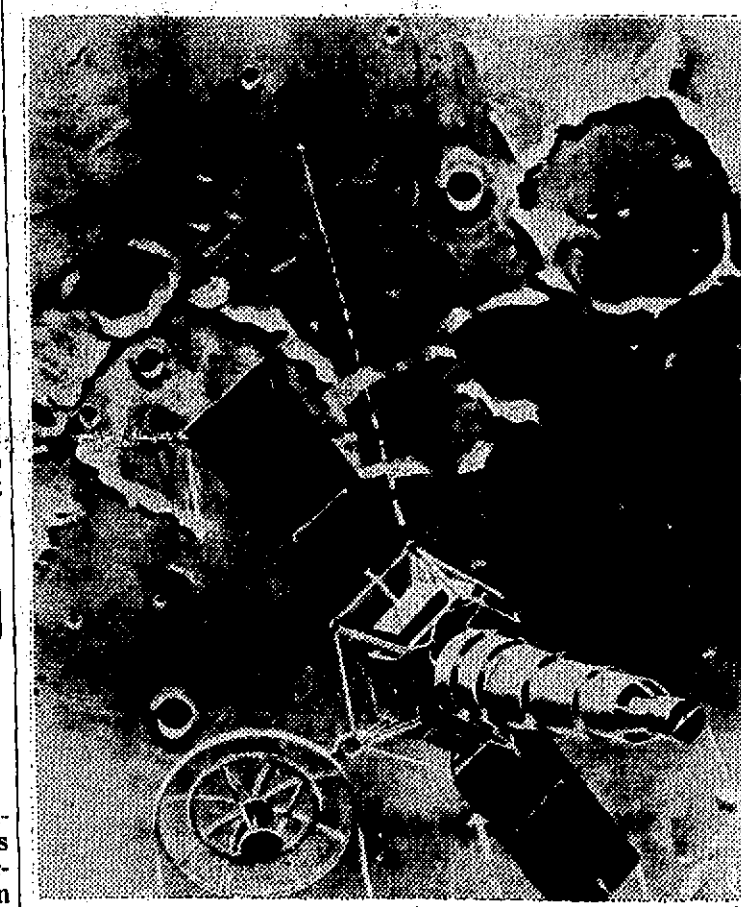

"I'll be a full-fledged candidate," Coffelt said. "I'm not surprised that Mr. Bennett would want to keep down an opponent."

Bennett's reaction was: "First Mr. Ridgeway and ex-convict. Now Mr. Coffelt!"

E. T. Ridgeway could not run for governor because he had been convicted of a felony. The state Supreme Court upheld the ruling.

Chrysler to Fight for Truck Deal

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. will fight the government's effort to stop its plan to take over 48-year-old Mack Trucks Inc. in a multimillion-dollar deal.

A civil antitrust suit was brought by the Justice Department Thursday against Chrysler at Newark N.J.

Chrysler promptly denied the government's charge the move would reduce competition in the auto industry.

The Chrysler statement said further it was "dismaying and strange" that the government should move at this time in an "eleventh-hour action." The auto company said it had kept the government fully informed since the deal was broached three months ago.

Federal Judge Reynier Wortendyke of Newark issued a temporary restraining order enjoining Chrysler from going ahead with the acquisition of Mack Trucks.

The government is to follow up with a request for a preliminary injunction a Justice Department spokesman said.

Acting under the Clayton and Sherman antitrust laws the government charged the deal would substantially reduce competition in the truck and diesel engine industries.

The government also said the transaction would mean the elimination of competition between Chrysler and Mack Trucks in trucks and parts.

The complaint said it might mean foreclosure of diesel engine manufacturers other than Mack from selling to Chrysler and an increase in an already severe concentration in truck manufacturing possibly fostering mergers by other companies.

Chrysler makes the Dodge truck. Mack is a leading manufacturer of heavy-duty trucks. The government said Chrysler had total sales of $3.5 billion last year and Mack $305 million.

Natives Mass in Africa for 2nd Charge

By JOHN MCCAUSLAND

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (AP) — Determined disciples of the fanatic Lumpa religious sect were reported massing today in another area of Northern Rhodesia after government forces mopped up their headquarters village.

The Northern Rhodesian government said its troops killed 65 Lumpas and wounded 50 more of the warrior tribesmen who made a suicidal charge Thursday from the village of Sione — Zion — in the Chinsali area 500 miles northeast of Lusaka.

Previously the government had reported 30 Lumpas and 11 others killed in more than a week of violence. In addition, refugee Africans have reported the Lumpas massacred 200 inhabitants of two villages near Sione.

Police said a large concentration of the sect was reported gathering at Chipundu, 70 miles south of Chinsali. Officials feared the fighting would spread through Northern Rhodesia's bush-covered northern province, an area as large as Britain.

The followers of Lumpa prophetess Alice Lenshina showed no fear at Sione as wave after wave of them, armed with spears or old muzzle loaders, charged the troops, armed with rifles and Bren guns.

A government spokesman said six soldiers were slightly wounded.

The troops moved into Sione and routed a number of spear-armed women from the sect's brick "cathedral" with tear gas, but they couldn't find Alice, founder of the 11-year-old sect which numbers 75,000 adherents.

Ft. Smith Is Center of Heat Wave

Arkansas Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fort Smith is bearing the brunt of Arkansas' current hot weather the eastern half of the state is getting the showers, and the southern half is hoping for rain.

That's the way the Arkansas weather shapes up. And the U.S. Weather Bureau said today little change is expected through the weekend.

Fort Smith has had six straight days of temperatures 100 degrees and above and Thursday was its second day of 105-degree weather.

The bureau predicts clear to partly cloudy skies with maximum daytime temperatures ranging from 88 to 103 and overnight minimums mostly in the 70s.

Maximum readings Thursday ranged from 105 at Fort Smith to 91 at Pine Bluff. Overnight low readings ranged from 69 to 74.

Widely scattered, mostly afternoon and evening showers and thundershowers were forecast for all sections of the state, but the rain would be of little consequence.

Planning Can Speed SS Payments

Otis A. Blackwood, district manager of social security in Texarkana, says a little advance planning before you file your claim will go a long way toward speedy payment of your social security benefits.

In addition to your social security number, various other documents will be needed. For instance, if you operate your own business, it will be necessary to furnish a copy of your 1963 Federal tax return, Form 1040, Schedule C or the Schedule F if you are a farmer or a farm operator, and Schedule SE. Be sure to take along an extra copy to leave with your claim. Also take your cancelled check, money order stub, or Internal Revenue Service receipt to show that your tax return was filed.

Those persons who work for wages should take a copy of their 1963 Form W-2, Withholding Statement, with them when they apply for benefits.

If your wife or dependent husband is also filing a claim, they will need to have some proof of their age. This should be a birth certificate or other old document such as an insurance policy which shows their age or date of birth.

A widow who is filing a claim on the social security record of her deceased husband will need her marriage certificate and her husband's social security number.

Your social security office will be glad to tell you what documents will be required for your claim. They can also help you locate these documents if you do not already have them.

Historic Success Paving Way for Visit by Man

By RALPH DIGHTON

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Spacecraft Ranger 7 televised the first close-up picture of the moon today then crashed into the Sea of Clouds, scoring a historic first success in the trouble-haunted U.S. lunar exploration program.

The first pictures printed looked "extremely good," scientists reported at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which created and controlled the pioneering vehicle.

After study by experts, pictures were expected to be released for public scrutiny within 24 hours.

Ranger 7's cameras started turning at 6:07 a.m. Pacific Daylight Time and it all worked as programmed may have returned as many as 4,000 still photographs made almost up to the instant of impact at 6:25 a.m.

The shots are vital to the space program. They are expected to show the character of terrain where the first moon visitors may descend.

"We've had our troubles but it looks now as though this was a textbook operation." Everything apparently performed as it should.

Several hundred newsmen and laboratory employees, packed in an auditorium for the news conference, gave Pickering a standing, noisy ovation when he entered.

Pickering said two more Rangers would be launched early next year. Evaluation of today's photographs, he said, would determine whether the same target area would be chosen.

Today's pictures were the first close shots, but not the first space-made photographs of the moon. The Soviet Lunik III photographed the hidden backside of the moon from 40,000 miles in 1955. But quality was no better than that from earthly telescopes.

Schurmeier said the pictures should tell surface characteristics of the moon — "whether there are rocks or boulders, or lots of craters."

Pickering elaborated: "We all know the area selected (for the target) is a very smooth area as seen from earth. But as far as the Apollo astronaut program is concerned, one question must be answered: What is the exact nature of the area of the moon we can land on?"

Asked why it would take 24 hours to release the pictures, Pickering said:

"I assure you we're going to process these pictures with tender, loving care. It will take several hours to process them carefully and obtain the scientific information we hope to get."

"It will take several additional hours for the board to study the first pictures."

"We may be able to get the pictures out to you as early as late this evening, but I can promise you you will have them at the latest by tomorrow morning. We hope to know sometime this afternoon just when we'll have something to release."

Arkansas Dies in Oklahoma Wreck
TULSA, Okla. (AP) - Hugh E. Storts, 53, of Siloam Springs, Ark. died in a hospital here Thursday of injuries received Wednesday when his dump truck went out of control and overturned into a ditch.
Storts and a passenger Lon Burchum 50 of Colcord Okla. jumped from the truck and Storts landed on the pavement of U.S 59 near Jay, Okla.
The opinion of a chief justice does not lend added weight in a court decision.

OTHER SIDE-ANOTHER WORLD-New addition to St. Peter's Basilica in Rome is the "door of death"-a special entrance for funeral processions. Fifteen years in the making by sculptor Giacomo Manzù, the massive bronze panels bear raised figures symbolic of the passing of man, in both the liturgical and literal sense.

for the nomination in any event, was Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Another who was accorded a personal "no, thanks" was Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.
Commenting on his action, Johnson said he had decided it would be inadvisable to pick as a running mate any member of the cabinet or those who have cabinet status.
Aides said Johnson felt that all of these men were working so hard in essential jobs that their endeavors would suffer if they were called upon to take on the burden of campaign roadwork.
An Associated Press poll of convention delegates was released, by coincidence, at the time of Johnson's announcement. It showed that Humphrey was a 3-to-2 choice for vice president. He got 341 first choice votes. The attorney general, in second place, got 230.
Humphrey and McCarthy were searching their personalities to try to determine if they could fill Johnson's requirements that his running mate be attractive, prudent, progressive with a passionate consideration for the people's welfare and still be welcomed into every state of the union.
Humphrey has been anathema to many in the South because of his strong stand on civil rights, but has softened that opposition in recent years.
McCarthy, just as liberal as Humphrey, has not made much noise on major issues. But he is a Roman Catholic and the Republicans picked one of his faith for second place in naming Rep. William E. Miller of New York as their vice presidential candidate.
Humphrey issued a statement in which he said that "the matter of selection of a Democratic vice presidential candidate is in the hands of the President."
McCarthy said Johnson's announcement "obviously eliminates people who are in the cabinet and other offices he included." But McCarthy said the qualifications of "prudence and experience and acceptability" the President laid down "still apply to a very large number of people, both in and out of politics."
Kennedy said it was the President's responsibility to decide on his running mate.
He added: "It is in the interest of all of us who were associated with President Kennedy to continue the efforts to advance the programs and ideals to which he devoted his life and which President Johnson is carrying forward."
Johnson's associates cautioned against interpretations of DOOR-TO-DOOR HEARTBEAT SURVEY—Hearts of a sample of 500 residents of Alexandria, Va., are being checked, at home and by a computer, reportedly the first automated-at-home cardiac survey on a community-wide basis. Carrying a seven-pound, battery-operated electrocardiograph developed by Honeywell, Inc., Alexandria public health nurses like Mrs. Betty Jeffery (left) visit subjects' homes. Heart impulses obtained by the instrument are relayed by telephone to a field station in nearby Washington, D.C. The impulses are recorded on a magnetic tape system (right). A computer then measures and analyzes wave patterns of the electrocardiograms. The program is being conducted by the Alexandria Health Department and the U.S. Public Health Service.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Chicago people say their city is becoming the new steel capital.

They claim the westward movement has swept the greatest steel center out of these wrinkled Ohio alley hills and plopped it out there on the flat prairie.

Don't believe it, Chicago. It was a statistician who started the story. He added up some figures and made some comparisons.

But the people here know better. They consider the spirit, and they say the spirit isn't likely to leave these hills.

For it was in Pittsburgh that a young nation grew its muscles of steel.

Pittsburgh steel made by the old-timers was more than steel; it was sweat and blood and gloom and hope.

It was Pittsburgh iron that whizzed through the air at Gettysburg.

It was Pittsburgh steel that pushed railroads across the prairie. It was Pittsburgh steel that built so many of the great skyscrapers and bridges.

And it was mostly Pittsburgh steel that showed the Kaiser, and Hitler, and some others a thing or two about industrial might.

You can make your Chicago steel for paper clips and can openers. You'll never make foot-and-a-half-thick armor for battleships, as Pittsburgh has.

Make your steel for beer cans and gaudy auto fenders. You'll never make the Empire State Building.

You'll make Chicago steel with pushbuttons, with white-coated technicians, peering at dials and gauges. The production line will be machines.

In Pittsburgh, steel was made with shovels. It was made in thunder and fire. In a smoky brilliance that glimmered off the rivers and filled the sulphur nights with sight and sound and smell.

It was made in weary, 16-hour days, by sweaty, grimy men putting down roots in a new world, by men who could speak but a few words of the English language.

That was the spirit that made Pittsburgh steel. It's a glory that cannot be erased, or stolen away.

Maybe, Chicago, the statistician will convince you that you are the new champion of steel, can will convince you that you might.

If you do, you might — from time to time — slip off your crown of steel and read the inscription inside. It says: "Made in Pittsburgh."

"DEAR ABBY"

WHAT NEXT?

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I am 29 and very much in love with a 34-year-old man who was married for eight years. He recently divorced his wife because after spending a fortune on doctors, he found out the reason they had never had children was because his wife couldn't have any. This man is crazy about children and says he won't take a chance on marrying another woman who can't give him a family. I know this is going to sound horrible, Abby, but he says that the day I can give him proof that I am pregnant, he will marry me. But not until. He says he will even put it in writing. He has a lot to offer a girl, and I see nothing wrong with his proposition, but I would like to know if it would hold up in court.

WILLING TO GAMBLE

Dear Willing: If you see nothing wrong with this proposition at age 29, I doubt that I can educate you in one letter. As for whether his "deal" (written or otherwise) would hold up in court, a lawyer can tell you. A pity they don't require BRAIN tests along with BLOOD tests before marriage.

Dear Abby: My wife seldom throws anything out, and consequently our home is cluttered with old newspapers, magazines, rags, empty catnip bottles, pickle jars, outgrown children's clothing, toys, and I could go on and on. I attacked this mess a few times and admit that the last time I was quite vocal about my displeasure, which did not make for tranquility. We have children 12, 8, and 4. My wife is in good health and does not work outside the home. Can this problem be solved?

SEMI-HAPPY
Dear Semi: Your house is not a home. It's a fire trap! If your wife is in good health, she is apparently lazy, disorganized and in need of some help. "Attack the mess" together. The Salvation Army would appreciate the toys and clothing. Don't permit your wife to accumulate another collection even if you have to sacrifice a little "domestic tranquility" to achieve some semblance of orderliness.

Dear Abby: I know you usually stick up for teen-agers, but I think you should mention that there are plenty of parents, who have tried their best to raise their children to be honest and decent, but something goes wrong despite their efforts. Thank you.

HOUSTON PARENT

Dear Parent: Yes, what you say is true. But I am reminded of an incident which occurred in your city not long ago. Judge L. J. King, of Criminal District Court No. 2, found a young man in his court whom he had already placed on probation. He told the lad that now he would have to give him a prison sentence. The boy answered, "Good, I'd rather go there than home!"

Dear Abby: My name happens to be Kilroy, and wherever I go, people say, "O—Kilroy was here!" Will you please tell me who Kilroy was?

KILROY
Dear Kilroy: The expression originated during World War II. I don't know whether Kilroy was a legendary character or a real one, but I'll bet one of my readers can come up with the answer. Does anyone know?

Jury Receives Findings in Racial Riot

ROCHESTER N.Y. (AP) — A detailed report analyzing the causes of last weekend's rioting in Rochester today was in the hands of a grand jury investigating the racial strife.

The voluminous police report was compiled by the Police Bureau's internal inspection division and is based on testimony gathered from scores of witnesses to the violence.

The grand jury reportedly is laying the groundwork for felony charges of riot and inciting a riot. More than 200 persons are expected to be indicted.

The probe entered its fifth day today and was seen continuing through next week.

Four other persons died and about 350 were injured in the weekend melee.

Police Chief William Lombard Thursday commended his police officers for their conduct courage and what he described as "restraint in the face of the most severe provocations on the part of the mob."

Several hundred city and state police—with National Guard troops standing by to help if needed—continued to patrol the Negro sections where violence flared out of control.

Arkansan Keeps Lead in Archery

WATKINS GLEN, N. Y. (AP) — Caroline Johnson of Little Rock maintained her lead in the women's freestyle division of the National Field Archery Association tournament as it entered its final round here today.

Miss Johnson scored 1,793 points to lead Mildred Zimmerman of Huron, Ohio, 1,771, and Jane Walte, Tyron, Pa., 1,740.

Falls From a Barge, Drowns

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—TA3-c Terrence Vance Lewis, 21, of Little Rock Air Force Base, drowned in Lake Maumelle Thursday night when he fell from the front of a pontoon party barge.

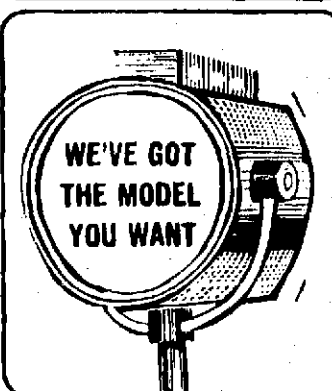

Pulaski County sheriff's deputies said they were told by witnesses that Lewis struck his head in the fall.

Even though the James boys used the caves and hollows of the Ozarks as hideouts on many occasions, the only robbery in Arkansas engaged in by Jesse and his men was a stage hold-up between Malvern and Hot Springs in the year 1874.

New Spirit in Detroit Lions Camp

By BERNIE KENNEDY
Associated Press Sports Writer

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. (AP) — There is a new, high spirited atmosphere at the Detroit Lions camp this year and the reason for it is simple: Alex Karras is back.

Karras, along with Green Bay Packers halfback Paul Hornung, was suspended last year and was not allowed to play. But the suspension has been lifted and no one is as anxious to get back into the National Football League wars as Karras.

"Sure, it was tough sitting out last season," the giant defensive tackle said. "But that's all over, and I'm anxious to get back and help us win the Western Division title."

"I honestly think we have a good chance, providing we can stay healthy," he continued.

Without Karras, who had been an all-pro selection his last three seasons, the Lions slipped to a 5-8-1 record in 1963.

How much of this can be blamed on Karras' absence and how much came about because of a rash of injuries, cannot be determined.

But Coach George Wilson admits that Karras' loss was a terrific blow to the club, both on the field and in the morale department.

"Alex is great at keeping the team loose," said Wilson. "He has a real knack of keeping other players on their toes with his gentle, but effective, needling."

"I don't think we realized when we lost him just how much he meant to the over-all play of the club. But we found out as we went along that he was almost impossible to replace."

'Peasant' Skirt Latest by Designer

By LOUISE HICKMAN
AP Fashion Writer

PARIS (AP) — Dior's wide, bulky "peasant skirt" silhouette, shown in Paris, is the newest thing to hit fashion since the sack. Beside it, all else is evolution, derivation, or reminiscence.

There's been a lot of longing for the cool grace of the '30s in fashion lately — Dior's Marc Bohan did it himself last season — but the "new, new look," as some experts called it Thursday, looks far better. It's fresh, midcentury, not a rehash.

Long, widening jackets float on the bulky skirts. Raglan shoulders are soft and supple, not wide, not narrow. Sleeves are long, loose, and tubular, without cuffs.

The skirts are shirred onto a narrow fitted yoke. Loose, sweaty tops can be tucked in, or worn over. There's always a ribbon belt.

Small women can wear the swifty skirts with a little

"Tubular" has been a helpful word in fashion lately, and it looks about to push "A-line" into the background. Cardin's straight dresses last season had the shape, and so have lots of others.

Tubular suits had double-buttoned short jackets and wrapped tubular skirts. Tubular coats buttoned high. Tubular round necklines, raglan shoulders, and the long, loose, tubular sleeve.

The bulky silhouette only seemed to work out with a two-piece look: long, loose jacket, or short coat, with wide skirt.

Poll Names Humphrey to Demo Ticket

By RELMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota has topped a nationwide poll of Democratic convention delegates who stated a preference for the vice-presidential nominee on the 1964 ticket.

Humphrey was named as a first choice by 341 delegates.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, named by 230, ran second. More than a dozen other Democratic leaders were listed as personal preferences.

The great majority of the delegates, declined to state a choice, on the ground that President Johnson should be permitted to name his running mate. Most of these said they would vote for anybody the President wants, adding that they have no preference of their own.

"I have made no decision," Johnson said Thursday at a news conference. But he said he would want the vice-presidential nominee to be attractive, prudent, and progressive with a compassionate consideration for the welfare of the people.

The poll of Democratic convention delegates was taken by Associated Press correspondents across the nation. They began questioning delegates on July 14.

The Democratic National Committee lists 3,052 delegates, with 2,316 votes, in the convention. In some states, delegates have fractional votes. The convention opens Aug. 24 in Atlantic City, N.J.

A total of 836 persons stated preferences in The Associated Press poll. More than two-thirds named Humphrey and Kennedy.

An Idaho delegate favors Mrs. John F. Kennedy. "This would be the best opportunity in a long time to elect a woman to high national office," was the comment on the unsigned questionnaire.

Sargent Shriver, director of the Peace Corps, and Kennedy's brother-in-law, was named by 63 delegates as their choice. Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota came next as the preference of 50.

Others mentioned were California's Gov. Edmund G. Brown, 28; U. N. Ambassador

Lost Life Saving Guests of the Hotel

OTTAWA (AP) — Addie McCormick 64 a widow lost her life Thursday when she stayed at her telephone switchboard to warn guests of a fire that swept through the fashionable 300-room Beacon Arms Hotel.

Her son Donald was one of the firemen who fought the blaze that took two other lives and injured at least 17.

Many of the 130 people in the 12-story building escaped down fire-truck ladders or crossed a catwalk high above the pavement into an office building next door.

Most of the injured suffered burns cuts smoke poisoning or shock.

Cause of the fire had not been determined early today. Mrs. McCormick had been a Bell Telephone Co. supervisor for more than 20 years before she came to the hotel in 1958. Phil Horwitz hotel president said he called to her to leave out the front door thinking the operator was behind him.

Her body was found beside the switchboard. All of the jackets were plugged in indicating she was still trying to make calls when overcome by smoke.

Orioles Belt Twins, Pirates Win Twin Bill

Birdie Tebbetts is a master of psychology — only sometimes the psychology backfires. That's what happened to the Cleveland manager Thursday night when Washington defeated the Indians 8-7.

Tebbetts shook up his club with a rash of fines and then the Indians shook up the Senators with a rash of runs, Cleveland had scored six times before most Washington fans were settled in their seats and Tebbetts was congratulating himself for waking up his team.

Unfortunately, the Indians also woke up the Senators. When Washington came back with seven runs in the sixth and added some clutch relief pitching by Jim Hannan and Ron Kline, Tebbetts and the Indians were back where they started — on the short end.

Two-run singles by Joe Cunningham and Dick Phillips were the key blows in the Senator splurge which put Washington on top. Hannan, who came on after the Indians hopped on Al Koch for five singles and a homer by Vic Davallio in the first, pitched five shutout innings. The Indians got a run in the eighth and loaded the bases with two out in the ninth on three walks before Kline came on to end it.

It was the sixth straight loss for the Indians and fourth straight victory for Washington. And it left Tebbetts wondering what a team has to do to win a ball game.

Elsewhere in the American League, Baltimore belted Minnesota 7-4 and Chicago blanked Detroit 2-0 in the only other games scheduled.

Phillies Take Giants in 10th, Keep 1st Place

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer
John Briggs is a listening man's thinker.

In this case, Briggs, a Philadelphia rookie, thinking and the listening at the same time.

The mental feat, plus the two-run double that resulted from it, brought the Phillies a 4-3 triumph over San Francisco in 10 innings Thursday night and boosted Philadelphia's National League lead to 1 1/2 games over the second-place Giants.

The Phillies were in danger of tumbling from the top after the Giants took a 3-2 lead in their 10th. But Johnny Callison doubled, Tony Taylor was hit by a pitch and Richie Allen beat out an infield hit, all with none out.

Up came Briggs, using a different bat. It was Allen's longer and heavier bat, and the 20-year-old left-hander was trying it for the first time.

The ball shot out to the right field wall for a double, sending Callison and Taylor across with the tying and winning runs.

Not so fortunate was Casey Stengel, who celebrated his 74th birthday by watching his New York Mets lose to the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-3. Elsewhere in the NL, Pittsburgh moved into third place by sweeping Houston 1-0 and 8-3 and St. Louis defeated Chicago 5-2.

In the American League, Baltimore overpowered Minnesota 7-4, Chicago blanked Detroit 2-0 and Washington outlasted Cleveland 8-7.

The Phillies led 2-1 until Willie McCovey smashed his 14th homer in the ninth inning with one out. San Francisco then went in front 3-2 in the 10th as Harvey Kuenn singled, took second on a wild pitch, went to third on a sacrifice and came home on a single by Willie Mays.

Gus Triandos homered for the Phillies in the third while Jesus Alou connected in the Giants' fifth.

The Mets appeared well on their way toward handing Stengel a delightful birthday present, the first victory over Sandy Koufax in their brief history. Bob Taylor had given New York a 3-0 lead with a three-run homer in the fourth.

But the Dodgers scored two runs in the seventh on Jim Gilliam's single, Willie Davis' triple and an infield out, then tied the game in the eighth on a run-scoring double by Wally Moon, who batted for Koufax. The Dodgers rallied for two runs in the ninth, Tommy Davis driving in the winning tally with a single.

The Pirates got tight pitching from Vernon Law and Don Schwall in their sweep of Houston. Law pitched a five-hitter in the opener and scored the only run on Bill Virdon's single in the sixth inning.

Schwall held the Colts scoreless in the nightcap until the ninth inning when a three-run outburst brought reliever Al McBean, Jerry Lynch homered in the fourth and singled in the first two runs in the Pirates' seven-run sixth.

Bill White drove in four runs as the Cardinals increased their winning streak to six games, longest in the league this season. White singled across two runs in the third, knocked in another with a single in the seventh and sent home the fourth with a ninth-inning sacrifice fly.

Richardson Scores Knockout
SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Willie Richardson, 185½, of San Jose, scored his 14th heavy-weight knockout victory Thursday night when he stopped Kirk Barrow, 182, of Oakland, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round fight.

sweet a doubleheader from Houston 1-0 and 8-3, Los Angeles ruined Casey Stengel's 74th birthday by whipping New York 5-3 and St. Louis won its sixth straight, dropping Chicago 5-2.

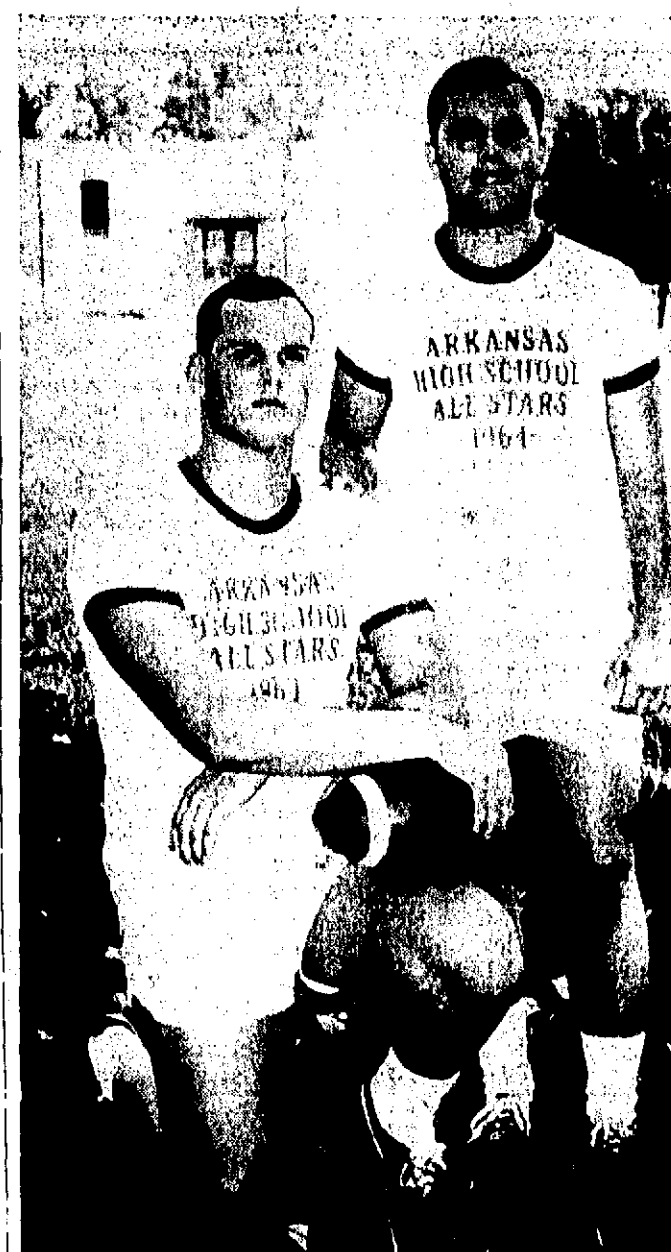

Gary Peters, who has been doing some fancy hitting for hte White Sox, left the run-making to Bill Skowron and concentrated on pitching. His three-hitter stifled the Tigers and ran his record to 12-3.

Skowron produced both Chicago runs with a sixth inning triple as the third place White Sox moved two games back of the idle New York Yankees.

Runner-up Baltimore trimmed the Yankee margin to a half game by stealing some of Minnesota's thunder with a five home run barrage. Jackie Brandt connected twice and Earl Robinson, Dick Brown and Brooks Robinson had one apiece for the Orioles, who tied a club record for homers in one day.

Rookie Dave Vineyard won his second straight for the Orioles but needed ninth inning help from Stu Miller after Ron Henry smacked a pinch two-run homer.

Smackover Downs Hope LL Nine

By Jimmy Singleton

Smackover defeated the Hope Little League All-Stars last night by a close 8 to 7 score with Pigage credited with the win and Jones the loss.

A ground rule double in the bottom of the 6th drove in the winning run. Smackover started fast and scored seven runs the first inning. Hope managed to tie it up. Hope changed hurlers and Jones set them down the rest of the way until the 6th inning double proved fatal.

Pigage and Murph collected two homers in the first for the winners. Hope's Whitten got two for four to lead in that department.

Monday a district playoff will start at 3 p.m. on the local field.

Arkansas in Victory Over Denver Team

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas hit Denver early and the effort stood up for a 5-3 victory in a Pacific Coast League baseball game here Thursday night.

Bill Kunkel of the Bears succeeded loser Herb Hippauf on the mound and choked the Travelers with hitless pitching.

Bill Sorrell walked, Norm Gigon doubled and Sorrell scored on an infield out for an Arkansas run in the first inning.

Howie Goss singled, Fred Walters walked, Joel Gibson sacrificed, Sorrell doubled and Gigon singled for three Traveler tallies in the second.

Phillips doubled in the third, went to third on Walters' single and then stole home.

Santos Alomar, Bubba Morton and Tommy Aaron put singles together and Jim Coker hit a sacrifice fly for two Denver runs in the first.

ALWAYS THE GREATEST

By Pat Werner

Whenever it's baseball season again I think about the career of Lefty Morrison. Maybe he wasn't the best pitcher in the league but to me he'll always be the greatest.

Back in my 14th summer, I was a gangly ex-tomboy, adjusting to lipstick and high heels. I also had a crush on that lean, sandy-haired, 20-year-old rookie hero of the mound. While most of the girls my age were screaming over some crooner, I spent every Sunday afternoon glued to the radio, envisioning the manly Morrison form winding up in the hope of delivering a called strike over the plate.

I am of the generation which grew up before TV became the me! But with the radio and my imagination the tensions mounted and the innings were vividly played in the confines of my head.

I kept hoping Lefty would pitch a no hitter, and whenever the other team got that first hit, I rooted for a one hitter, a two hitter, even a shutout. Sometimes I just prayed for Lefty to win.

Sometimes the manager would walk out to the mound, signal the bullpen and Lefty would go to the showers. I almost wept enough tears to supply the moisture when this happened.

I don't know how many knitting needles I snapped when the count was "out to the end of the string." I only know that I wept whenever Lefty was sent to the showers, for I could picture the downcast look on his dear face and the dejected droop of his broad shoulders.

This did not go unnoticed by my parents. They would have had to get the idea sometime, the way I practically papered my room with pictures of Lefty.

I suspected that my folks were hatching a surprise but I never dreamed it would be anything so exciting. When Dad waved those three box-seat tickets for a Sunday double-header under my nose, I nearly died of ecstatic anticipation. My exuberant hug almost strangled poor glasses hanging from one ear.

We lived 200 miles from Chicago, there was a war on, gas was rationed and, in the lingo of the war effort, this trip was hardly necessary.

So we took the train. We had to get up at three in the morning but I was too nervous over the idea of seeing Lefty to have slept anyway. And it was raining.

Dad quoted cheerily, "Rain before seven stops before 11." I crossed my fingers and hoped and braced my feet. The train was so crowded that Dad and I had to stand. A sailor gave his seat to Mom.

By the time we reached the Windy City my feet were numb and my heart was breaking. It was still pouring outside.

Dad tried to comfort me by telling me about how they'd have the field covered and it was still hours before game-time, but I knew somehow that my pretty pink dream was going under in cold mud.

We drove and out of doorways around The Loop for a while, and then called the field. The double-header was postponed.

Mom and Dad tried to make it up to me by buying me a lunch at a fancy restaurant and taking me to a stage show, but all I could taste or feel was bitter disappointment. Train tickets didn't grow on trees and Dad didn't make a lot of money. I knew this would be my only chance, at least that year.

At home the next day I didn't get out of bed. I had a cold to show for the trip and a lot of tears to dampen my pillow.

I looked at all those pictures of Lefty and I just had to tell him. I smuggled the stained letter out in my history book and mailed it three days later.

Fall came. Lefty pitched in the Series. I would have almost given my autographed picture of Roy Rogers to have been there.

Lefty never answered my letter. I supposed that secretaries took care of those things and some bad-tempered female had thrown it out.

The long red convertible in front of our house that November afternoon puzzled me. I hurried inside. There Lefty was in our living room! I dropped my books, the ceiling reeled and I think I would have fainted if Lefty hadn't caught me.

He said he liked my letter and had decided to try to see me the next time he was in our area. I couldn't talk. What do you say to a dream?

He took us to dinner. He ask-

Branton said Ozell Sutton of Little Rock, associate director of the Arkansas Council on Human Relations, will direct the drive in Arkansas.

Faubus to Reopen His Headquarters

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Thursday his campaign headquarters will reopen within a month for the battle against Winthrop Rockefeller.

Faubus greeted well - wishers in his office here after his victory Tuesday in the Democratic primary. He said he planned to rest for the next few days.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The big movie studio where Bette Davis and Joan Crawford are starring in a film had been chilled to a frigid 60 degrees although the outside temperature was well over 85.

We huddled around an electric heater, in a trailer dressing room as Agnes Moorehead, in her movie costume — frowsy gray wig and slattern's house-dress — discussed the fine art of playing a chic, sophisticated witch, her next, very different chore.

After our chat, Miss Moorehead was to have a chair smashed over her head, tumble down a flight of stairs and break her neck as the violent start of "Bewitched," ABC's tongue-in-cheek entry into this season's fantasy sweepstakes.

Miss Moorehead, an eminent actress with a broad background of stage and screen, will be playing the part of Elizabeth Montgomery's sorceress mother in the series. Elizabeth will be a young witch who marries a young advertising executive, and abandons witchcraft. The series will be full of magic — with mother witch appearing, and disappearing at will, controlling other people, reading minds.

After all these years, Walter Cronkite will be missing from his anchorman's post during the Democratic convention. CBS' decision to replace Cronkite with Bob Trout and Roger Mudd is obviously an attempt to repair the network's convention ratings.

NBC's news team, topped by the popular Huntley and Brinkley, easily won the top audience ratings during the Republican sessions.

Russians Plan 2 Rocket Shots

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union announced today that rockets will be launched into two areas of the central Pacific south-southwest of the Hawaiian Islands in a five-month space program beginning Aug. 4.

Tass, the Soviet news agency said ships and planes should stay 75 miles from the center of the impact areas from noon until midnight each day of the test period.

"Tests of new varieties of carrier rockets for space objects will be conducted by the Soviet Union in accordance with its program of further space studies," the Tass announcement said.

Sinatra Case Attorneys Freed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Attorneys Gladys Towles Root and George A. Forde were free without bail today following arraignment on charges of "influencing intimidating and impeding a witness perjury and impeding the administration of justice."

The attorneys who unsuccessfully defended two of three men involved in the Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnapping earlier this year were arraigned Thursday on the federal grand jury indictments.

Mrs. Root and Forde denied any wrongdoing during the trial.

Negroes Plan Voter Drive in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A spokesman for the Voter Education Project (VEP) said Thursday that a voter registration drive among Negroes in Arkansas will be widely expanded in the next few weeks.

Wiley A. Branton of Atlanta, Ga., where the VEP is based, said the program is under way at Pine Bluff.

Project backers hope to put 20,000 more Negroes on Arkansas' voting rolls before the Nov. 3 general election, Branton said.

About 89,000 Negroes are believed to be registered voters in Arkansas now.

Branton, formerly of Pine Bluff, said this is the third and last year of the project, and it is a presidential election year, so VEP officials decided to swing into action in Arkansas and Texas.
